

NB!

In order to come into consideration the application must be received by the Board no later than three months after the employee has commenced working in Sweden.

Application sent to Forskarskattenämnden
Brunnsgränd 4
111 30 Stockholm

The employee

Name		Personal Identity Number (Swedish if there is one)
Citizenship	Day of arrival in Sweden	Estimated duration of stay in Sweden (must not be intended to exceed five years)
Have been a permanent or habitual resident (normally for six months) in Sweden at some time during the five years preceding the year in which the work commenced?		Estimated annual income, SEK
<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No

The employer (Must be registered in Sweden or be a foreign company with a permanent establishment here and also be the one who pays the salary)

Company	Corporate Identity Number
Postal address
Contact person	Authorized representative as per power of attorney
Contact person's/representative's postal address, telephone number and E-mail address

The employment

Tax relief may be considered if the work involves

- specialist tasks with a required orientation or level of competence that would entail difficulties in recruiting within the country,
- qualified research or development tasks with an orientation or on a level of competence that would entail difficulties in recruiting within the country, or
- company management tasks or other tasks that entail the occupation of a key position in a company.

The employment relates to work as	Date of commencement of work in Sweden
<input type="checkbox"/> expert/specialist <input type="checkbox"/> researcher <input type="checkbox"/> company manager/key person
Summarizing description of employee's position and tasks to be carried out for the employer
To be submitted as attachments: More detailed description of the employees' position and tasks, special competence or orientation required (e.g. it would be appropriate to submit a curriculum vitae), position in the company (organisational framework), the company's size and line of business, recruitment difficulties within the country of people with the sought after competence or orientation and other similar circumstances.
<input type="checkbox"/> Attachments included <input type="checkbox"/> Attachments will be sent later

Signature

Place and date	Place and date
Signature employee/representative	Signature employer/representative
Clarification of signature	Clarification of signature